IFWTWA Student Membership Requirements

SUBJECT MUST BE FOOD, WINE AND/OR TRAVEL

In a paragraph or longer, describe your professional media expertise, including a brief career bio. IFWTWA membership is open to all levels of food, wine, and travel journalists, photographers, broadcasters, and industry professionals whether experienced, new or aspiring.

A Student Member is a writer, photographer, editor or broadcaster reporting on food, wine or travel and/or journalism student enrolled in an institution of higher learning. The application for this class of membership shall include evidence of student status. Student status can be sustained for a maximum of five (5) years, after which any renewal must be as a Regular member, subject to the Associations requirements for Regular membership.

Student members that have some work experience please attach your favorite published clips or 2 tapes aired (with a list of at least 7 other dates/times aired) within 12 months (ending in the current year) for which compensation was received or whatever clips you have.

Send check or credit card authorization for $125 in U.S. funds, payable to IFWTWA at the address shown above. $125 covers your one-time $50 initiation fee and one (1) year's dues of $75. Dues are billed annually on a calendar year basis. You may deduct a pro-rated credit for the unused portion of the first-year dues against the second year's dues. Outside U.S., deduct $25 & use credit card, International Money Order, or Bank Check negotiable in U.S. dollars only. Please include a passport-sized photo with your application to be scanned or email an image file to admin@ifwtwa.org for inclusion in the Membership Directory.
